

Tomas McCabe

Call: 2024

Overview

Tomas started pupillage in September 2024 and is currently under the supervision of David Jukes, previously under Henry Bankes-Jones. He will obtain experience across all of Chambers' core areas including clinical negligence and professional negligence.

Prior to starting pupillage, Tomas obtained a first-class degree in law, an 'outstanding' on the bar course, and worked on ambulances as a FREC-3 first responder. Outside of law, Tomas enjoys going to the gym, playing chess, and has worked as a professional magician.